BELLIGERENT ITALIANS.-While Mr. Belligerent Italians.—While Mr. Michael Crawford, a respeciable citizen of the Seventh Ward, was walking along Zane street, toward the city, yesterday afternoon, he met a couple of drunken Italians near the "round house." One of the Romans, without any provocation whatever, approached Mr. Crawford and took hold of him, using him rather roughly. Mr. Crawford of course resented the insult, when the Italian, who is a powerful fellow, struck him several times in quick succession. A struggle ensued, and Mr. Crawford threw his assailant down. The rascal, however, casued, and air. Crawford torew ins-sailant down. The ruscal, however, quickly got upon his feet and followed Mr. Crawford for some distance across the bridge, striking him every opportunity he could get. He was twice knocked down by Mr. Crawford, but each knocked down by Mr. Crawford, but each time came up smiling and renewed his attack. Upon his arrival in this city he was arrested by Officers Liston and Mahoney, and locked up for a hearing this morning. He fought the officers desperately, and it was with the utmost difficulty they lodged him in the cooler. The fellow keeps a peanut stand on Market street, near 16th, and has the reputation of being a vicious and dangerous person.

HEAVY KORBERY OVER IN OHIO.—Mr. Samuel Giffen, a farmer living two miles northeast of St. Clairsville, on the Mt. Pleasant road, was in the city yesterday, searching for $1,600 worth of bonds which were stolen from his house on Sunday. Mr. Giffen and family left home about 9 o'clock on Sunday morning and attended church, not returning until 2 P. M. As the people residing in the country round the people residing in the country round about are seldom annoyed by tramps, and but few strangers are seen in the about are seldom annoyed by tramps, and but few strangers are seen in the vicinity, but little precaution is taken against thieves, and it is a common thing for the farmers to leave their houses without securing either doors or windows against possible intruders. Mr. Giffen therefore, apprehending no trouble, left his house without fastening either doors or windows. When he returned in the afternoon he discovered that some per-sons had been in the house and helped themselves liberally to the estables in the paptry. A further examination of the premisee disclosed the fact that a trunk in the garret, which had been the pagiry. A intriner examination the premises disclosed the fact that a trunk in the garret, which had been left unlocked, had been opened, and Martin's Ferry school bonds to the amount of $1,600 taken therefrom. The bonds are described as follows: No. 1, due in 1884, $500; No. 2, payable in 1883, $500; No. 3, due in 1881, $100; No. 20, due in 1882, $500. Bond No. 2 had been transferred by Mr. D. K. Giffen to his father, Mr. Samuel wiffen, and was so endorsed.

and was so endorsed.

A strange thing about this robbery is the fact that nothing was taken but the bonds, with the exception of what provisions were eaten, although there was quite a lot of valuable silver ware in the house, which the robbers could not help seeing. It is thought from this circumstance that the robbery was committed and was so endorsed by some person possessing a knowledge of the whereabouts of the bonds. Mr. Giffen the whereacouts of the bonds. Mr. Gillen is inclined to place the guilt upon the tramping fraternity. As the bonds are payable to the bearer, Mr. Giffen is making every effort to recover them before they are disposed of by the thieves.

THE Bellaire Leader speaks of the re-cent indictments in this city for gam-bling as follows:

A cheap man was up at Wheeling named Lovell, who played poker with mos of the high-toned sports of Wheeling for a long time. He didn't play with all of them at once, but with one now and anothe one then; consequently he must have played more poker than any one of his fellow pokerers, but the grand jury in-dicted most of Lovell's associates, and he Lovell, is still permitted to look after his sweetheart, or business. The moral of this seems to be that a little poker is dangerous, but a good bit of it sets a fel

BOOK BEER ON DRAUGHT.—Yesterday was "bock beer day" at most of the saloons, and the usual rampant goat was displayed in many windows, inviting thirsty humanity to enter and partake. Evidently the beverage was not indulged in to excess, as but little drunkenness was noticeable on the streets. THE GREAT 7-ELEPHANT RAILBOAD SHOW.—There is a liberal minded Kentucky gentleman, who, when his son cried to go to the circus, replied: "No, Johnny; but if you will be a very good boy all day, I will take you to see your grandmother's grave this evening." We do not repeat it to encourage the delusion that any such cheerful bribe will serve to pacify the longing youth of Wheeling and vicinity to-day, when the Great European T-Elephant Railroad Show arrives. No! Even the children of a larger growth will not to-day pause "to strike for the green graves of your sires!" if the pa-Febenant Kaliroaa Show arrives. Not leven the children of a larger growth will not to-day pause "to strike for the green graves of your sires!" if the patriotic obligation necessitated gloomy and solitary absence from the feast of features and fun those incomparable amusement caterers, the famous and popular Sells Bros., daily apread under their stupendous tents. Were we not afraid of being accused of pisgarising Victor Hugo, we should here remark that the inevitable eternally comes to pass, but we must content ourselves with simply asserting that when the Great Show comes no one will pass by its wonder portals, but everybody inevitably go in, to be next to eternally amazed and delighted with its pair of nursing twin Baby Elephants; its huge Doublehorned Rhinoceros, Horned Horse of Ethiops, Give performing Baby Elephants; Fred. Barclay, the champion bareback rider, and his associate star; the arena full of horse, dog, goat, monkey and pony actors; the quartette of clowns, and a thousand and one other most interesting and laughable animals, acts and antics. MOTHERS, MOTHERS, MOTHERS.—Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Southing Syrup for all diseases of teething in children. It releives the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the howels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother. d&w SICE AND AFFLICTED.—In order that all

SICK AND AFFLICTED.—In order that all may test the great virtues of Dr. Swaynes, Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry we have issued trial bottles at 25 cents. No family should be without this valuable medicine, as oftentimes a single 25 cent bottle will cure a recent cough or cold, and thus prevent much suffering and risk of life. It also cures asthma, bronchitis, liver complaint, and enriches and purifies the blood, giving tone and strength to the entire system. giving tone and strength to the entire system.

"I deem it my duty to tell the world what 'Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry' has done for me. I had a violent cough, night aweats, sore throat, great weakness, with severe attacks of hemorrhage; gave up all hopes of recovery. I am now cured, asound and hearty man. Edward H. Hamson, engineer at Sweeney's Pottory, 1334 Rudge Avenue, Philadelphia. Over twenty-five years have elapsed, and I still remain a healthy man." Sold by Drugists. Trial bottles 25 cents. Large size $1.00. Logan, List & Co., Wholesale Agents.

A FINE THING FOR THE TEETH.-Th A FINE THING FOR THE TERTH.—The fragrant SCODDONY has taken a very prom-inent place among the most approved dentifrices of the day. It is a very pop-ular article for the toilet, highly recom-mended by all who have used it, as a beautifier and preserver of the teeth, re-freshing the mouth, sweetening the breath, and arresting the progress of decay.

An Astonishing Fact.—A large pro-An ASTOMISHING FACE.—A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life act ually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw saide prejudice and skeptleism, take the advice of Druggista and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy re-lief is certain. Millions of bottles of this lief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent. eodaw
